

You Have My Yes [Lyrics, 6/8]

[Worship] by Paul Daugherty

Verse 1

If you're not the one leading me (the way), I don't wanna go—No, no, no
If you're not the voice calling me, then I don't wanna hear it—No, no, no
If your presence doesn't go with me I don't wanna follow—No, no, no
Even if the whole world goes that way, I won't go unless you say

Pre-Chorus

And if it's just you and me, than that's all I need cause we're the majority
God if you're asking me for anything—My answer will always be

Chorus

You have my yes (Guys respond)
You have my yes (Girls respond)
You have my yes

Verse 2

I don't need fame, or a high place, not runnin' that race—No, no, no
Not here by mistake, cause you know my name, you won't let me down—No, no, no
Anything this world could offer could never compare to you—No, no, no
Cause I would never trade one moment with you for anything else—No, no, no

Pre-Chorus

No matter how high I could go, how far I could reach, the greener the grass
And even if everyone goes, God if you're not in it, I know it won't last
And if it's just you and me, than that's all I need cause we're the majority
God if you're asking me for anything—My answer will always be

Bridge

Whatever you ask of me (Yes)
My answer will always be (Yes)

(Repeat until biggest Bridge below)

Whatever you ask of me (Yes)
My answer will always be (Yes)
